Alpine Saskatchewan is committed to creating a sport environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Coaches have a responsibility to create a sporting environment that is free of harassment, abuse, bullying and neglect.

Alpine Saskatchewan requires that all coaches participating in Alpine skiing have completed the online Respect in Sport certification (or equivalency), as required by Sask Sport Inc.

Policies Governing Respect in Sport

1. The policy applies to all coaches registered or named on an official sport roster under the membership jurisdiction of Alpine Saskatchewan.
2. Coaches not holding valid certification will have until December 31 each year to complete the Respect in Sport certification training or training equivalency such as NCCP Empower+ or the old Speak Out Course.
3. Current coaches will have until December 31, 2013 to complete the course.
4. Any coach not having Respect In Sport certification (or equivalency) by the deadline established will be removed as a coach until such time that the course is completed.
5. Alpine Saskatchewan is responsible for setting out the communication strategy specific to the certification requirements and deadline.

Enforcement

Non-compliance with this policy will result in loss of coaching privileges until such time that the course has been completed and all certificates submitted to Alpine Saskatchewan.
